Professional Career / Public Service:

22 June 2016-11 Nov 2018 - Minister of Youth and Sports, Maldives.

Responsibilities: She steered the large mandate and budget entrusted with confidence, and made landmark achievements in implementing government's reform Manifesto on youth and sports underscored for the first time in the Maldives as a priority sector. Ushered in reforms in partnership with national, regional and international sports stakeholders. Ms. Adam's efforts achieved more than 400 infrastructure projects in the sports arena (futsal, netball, basketball, football grounds) in all parts of the country. Established youth infrastructures in the New Youth City, Hulhumale Island under integrated projects and other atolls, developed youth centers in the geographically dispersed islands to make it more accessible to youth. She has empowered the youth by mobilizing island communities through youth leadership programs, motivational Awards, youth activities and major Youth Challenge Fair's targeted at communicating the opportunities in the job market, and youth training.

Under Ms Adam's strong leadership, she brought the stakeholders of the sports community ie. Sports Associations and agencies, players under one roof for the first time to deliberate and promote greater collaboration on sports development and implementation of the very first National Sports Act of the Maldives. In 2017 - 2018, the Maldives made history with the highest number of International Sports Medals for her country through her result-oriented leadership on sports development. As part of her mandate, she made considerable improvements in modernising the National Library system. Directing the Maldives National Center for the Arts, she initiated cultural exchanges with bilateral country partners. Ms. Adam hosted the Maldives' celebrity National Film Awards and motivated the industry from the promotion of Maldivian talents in poets, musicians, artists and operation of the National Art Gallery and people-to-people country cultural and youth exchanges.

20 May 2015-22 June 2016 - Minister of Health, Maldives.

Responsibilities:

Ms. Adam played an influential role in the WHO regional consultations particularly at the World Health Assembly held in Geneva in 2016. Ms. Adam chaired the WHO Southeast Asia Regional Ministerial Roundtable on Workforce Reform in Timor Leste in 2015 and received support to host the Asian regional meeting in the Maldives in 2017. Ms. Adam's strong leadership transformed the health sector to make services accessible to the people and her principle of accountability gained the public's confidence in the sector.

As health achievements impacted on the people under Ms. Adam's leadership, the Maldives received WHO certification as the first SEARO country on Malaria Free and Filaria Lymphatics Free Certification. She inaugurated the first-ever MRI service in the Maldives government Tertiary Hospital on 11 November 2015. She revitalized the Maldives National Tobacco Control Board, National Nutrition Council, and the National Aids/HIV Council and initiated endorsement of the first National Mental Health Action Plan. Ms. Adam's efforts resulted in progressive reforms in service delivery and insurance cover access to the population. Despite the challenges faced in managing a mega Ministry with deeper systemic issues and complexity of business interests of pharmaceuticals, procurement of equipment's/machinery in the male-dominated multi-stakeholder health industry, she remained unwavering and conscientious on her passionate resolve.

Under her leadership, her country's health sector achieved significant success with the establishment of 166 infrastructure projects on hospital/health facilities, expansion of services in Tertiary Hospital, IGMH with the upgrading of the Dialysis Center, X-ray, Emergency and Intensive Care facilities and introduced Specialist Services. She guided the efforts towards a sustainable health system with consultations on the finalisation of the 25 storey building with the first National Diagnostic Center, scheduled programmes for training of large numbers of MBBS doctors and specialties as well as nurses required. Extended specialist services to atolls by placing a gynaecologist, pediatric and anesthetic in every atoll hospital in 2015, led the establishment of the Medical Councils and mandate under the new Health Act. Greater connectivity of health system delivery was made by the provision of 234 land ambulances connecting air and sea ambulance to atoll health facilities to mobilize patients on emergencies and revitalization of public health.

13 Aug 2014-19 May 2015- Deputy Minister, Ministry of Law and Gender, Maldives.

Responsibilities: She was proactive on the Maldives' human rights issues and collaborations with international partners and civil society in developing meaningful advocacy materials, preparation of timely national briefing papers, press engagements on campaign on anti-violence against women and girls, projects on island community engagement and proactively contributed to policy development, discussions on gender mainstreaming in all sectors, and economic empowerment of women.

As Head of the Human Rights Department, she supervised the Maldives' Treaty reporting to International Conventions and the promotion of human rights nationally. She contributed to gender policy and design of community empowerment projects. Using Ms. Adam's technical skills and multilateral experience, she provided strategies and inputs to the drafting of legislations of Gender Equality Act, Child Rights Protection, Regulations on Persons with Special Needs Act, and conducted awareness programs on thematic areas of women's rights and gender equality for the State Report on the Universal Periodic Reporting, CEDAW report and Disability Convention.

Experience in the Bilateral, Regional and Multilateral Diplomacy

27 Aug 2002-22 Feb 2005 - Second Secretary (Acting as Deputy Head), High Commission of Maldives, United Kingdom and Northern Ireland, London

Responsibilities: Handled Tourism promotion, Maldives' PR Campaign to inform political issues through bilateral relations and the deliberations at the Commonwealth.

22 Feb 2005-20 July 2006 - First Secretary, High Commission of Maldives, United Kingdom & Northern Ireland, London.

Responsibilities: As the senior diplomat, Ms. Adam coordinated the PR campaign to manage the threat to the Maldives' tourism boycott surrounding the democratic and human rights reform agenda of the Maldives abroad. She coordinated Maldives' relations with Commonwealth, UK government and UK Parliamentarians, EU stakeholders and Amnesty International.

1 July 2007- 4 November 2009 - Charge d' Affaires a.i.(1 July 2007- 6 September 2007) Counselor, Permanent Mission of the Republic of Maldives to the United Nations, New York & non-resident Maldives Embassy to the United States of America

1 July - 4 November 2009- Deputy Permanent Representative / Minister Counsellor (Assistant Director-General later as Deputy-Director General, Ministry of Foreign Affairs) Upon request by the government assumed New York posting after suspending study leave (Sept 2006 to July 2007).

Responsibilities: She assumed the post initially as Counsellor and Charge de Affaires a.i. It was an important timeline in Maldives' multilateral diplomacy work ahead of the first democratic elections under the New Constitution in September 2018. Attended the United Nations General Assembly Sessions in 2007, 2008 and 2009. She negotiated on socio-economic issues, child protection, women's rights and advancement, and climate change, consultations on Security Council reform, LDC issues, SIDS issues at ECOSOC and AOSIS negotiations for Bali.

Ms. Adam was a Keynote Speaker addressing the United States of America Congressional Briefing on Developing Country of Climate Change and Adaptation Funding (Sponsored by Senate Affairs Foreign Committee convened on 20 November 2007 in Washington DC).

Recognised for her contribution to President Nasheed's first landmark visit to UN General Assembly in 2009, under the first democratically elected Government, Ms. Adam was appointed as the first-ever female Ambassador/Permanent Representative of Maldives to any organ of the United Nations, particularly to the United Nations Offices based in Geneva.

4 October 2009 – 31 July 2014 - Permanent Representative/Ambassador to the United Nations Offices in Geneva, (arrival in Geneva 24 November 2009 /appointed as Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary at the rank of Minister of State, Presentation of Credentials to UNOG on 3 December 2009)

April 2010- February 2012 -Focal Point of Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Maldives to UNFCCC / A Lead Negotiator on Climate Change Diplomacy.

2013 - Elected as Vice President of the UN Human Rights Council, Geneva (Representing Asian Group)

2010 – Elected as the Vice Chairperson of State Parties Conferences on UN Committee on Convention Against Torture.

Responsibilities: While holding 6 diplomatic positions, Ms. Adam had raised the image of Maldives as an influential member at the UN Human Rights Council (HRC). On assumption of the Ambassador post, Ms. Adam actively lobbied for the Maldives supported by the Foreign Ministry team to win the seat with historic highest votes (185 votes) and as the smallest member to the UN Human Rights Council. In 2010, Ms. Adam was elected as the Vice Chairperson of the UN Conferences on the Committee on Convention Against Torture. She served as the Vice President of the UN Human Rights Council, representing the diverse and wider Asian Group members in 2013; during the first term of the Maldives' membership at the Council. She played a lead role at the negotiations on human rights issues; to reach consensus on controversial politically sensitive issues that required extensive and delicate multilateral negotiations such as the situation on Syria and UPR Troika Chair on Palestine/Israel issues including the UPR Troika Chair for Azerbaijan and Armenia case. She also led UN resolutions on Human Rights and Climate Change/Environment and Promoting Trust Fund to assist the Small States and LDCs. She was one of the lead partners on initiatives of the Economic Empowerment of Women and Rights of Child. Ms. Adam achieved remarkable success in her proactive efforts in bilateral and political issues, relations, disability, and human rights, public health reforms and social issues, child rights protection, the advancement of women and gender equality, climate change and human rights at key posts in London, New York, and Geneva. Whilst the Maldives' Presidential elections faced challenges in 2013, Ms. Adam, supported by the Foreign Ministry, championed the Maldives' priorities and achievements made through UN HRC and achieved success in the campaign for Maldives re-election to the UN HRC for a second term 2014-2016.

In her capacity as Maldives' Ambassador to WTO, Ms. Adam secured 3 years of special GSP benefits and extension of assistance to LDC countries on graduation i.e. on Maldives' graduation from LDC on 1 January 2011. In her capacity as Ambassador to Switzerland, she secured subsidy for the rent of the Geneva Mission Office Space for 3 years from the Swiss Confederation. In the WTO and UN LDC consultations, Ms. Adam was proactive to lobby for LDCs vulnerability case. Ms. Adam was a lead negotiator and Focal point in the Maldives delegation on climate change and human rights negotiations at UNFCCC. She secured funding and hosted the platform of Progressive Group on Cartagena dialogue on climate change in the Maldives' in 2010 ahead of the COP at UNFCCC, Bonn.
