ADVANCED LEVEL GRADES

A pass in an Advanced level subject is indicated by one of the five Grades A(a), B(b), C(c), D(d), E(e), of which Grade A(a) is the highest and Grade E(e) is the lowest.

Grade N(n) indicates that the candidate's performance fell short of the standard required for Grade E(e) by a narrow margin.

ADVANCED SUPPLEMENTARY GRADES

A pass in an Advanced Supplementary subject is indicated by one of the five Grades A(a), B(b), C(c), D(d), E(e), of which Grade A(a) is the highest and Grade E(e) is the lowest.

Grade N(n) indicates that the candidate's performance fell short of the standard required for Grade E(e) by a narrow margin.

Examinations in AS subjects are of the same standard as examinations in Advanced level subjects, but AS syllabuses cover about half the subject content of Advanced level syllabuses.

ORDINARY LEVEL GRADES

Attainment in an Ordinary level subject is indicated by a Grade A(a), B(b), C(c), D(d) or E(e), of which Grade A(a) is the highest and Grade E(e) is the lowest. Candidates awarded Grade A(a), B(b) or C(c) have reached the standard of the former subject pass at Ordinary level. Grade D(d) indicates a lower level of attainment and Grade E(e) is the lowest level of attainment judged by the Council to be of sufficient standard to be recorded. Performances below the standard of Grade E(e) are not recorded on the Certificate.

+ Alternative Ordinary level subject. The syllabus and examination in this subject were designed for candidates of greater maturity than is normally expected at Ordinary level.

GENERAL

+++The syllabus and scheme of examination for this subject are given in the appropriate editions of the Council's Regulations and Syllabuses for examinations conducted in the United Kingdom.

CANDIDATE'S SIGNATURE

Candidates are required to sign this Certificate in ink in the space provided on the front of the Certificate, immediately upon receipt. An unsigned Certificate may not be accepted by universities and other bodies as proof of GCE qualifications.

General Certificate of Education Examination

Advanced level grades

A pass in an Advanced level subject is indicated by one of the following grades: A(a), B(b), C(c), D(d), E(e), of which Grade A(a) is the highest and Grade E(e) is the lowest.

Grade N(n) indicates that the candidate's performance falls short of the standard required for Grade E(e) by a narrow margin.

Advanced supplementary grades

A pass in an Advanced Supplementary subject is indicated by one of the five Grades A(a), B(b), C(c), D(d), E(e), of which Grade A(a) is the highest and Grade E(e) is the lowest.

Grade N(n) indicates that the candidate's performance falls short of the standard required for Grade E(e) by a narrow margin.

Examinations in AS subjects are of the same standard as examinations in Advanced level subjects, but AS syllabuses cover about half the subject content of Advanced level syllabuses.

Ordinary level grades

Attainment in an Ordinary level subject is indicated by a grade: A(a), B(b), C(c), D(d) or E(e), of which Grade A(a) is the highest and Grade E(e) is the lowest. Candidates awarded Grade A(a), B(b) or C(c) have reached the standard of the former subject class at Ordinary level. Grade D(d) indicates a lower level of attainment and Grade E(e) is the lowest level of attainment judged by the Council to be of sufficient standard to be recorded. Performances below the standard of Grade E(e) are not recorded on the Certificate.

(Alternative Ordinary level subject: In alternative subjects, candidates who do not attain the standard required for candidates of junior maturity status are usually awarded an ordinary level.

General

The syllabus and specifications for examination in the subjects listed above are appropriate editions of the Council's syllabus for public examinations in the subject in question, as published in the United Kingdom.

The Council is an independent body established by the Government of the United Kingdom to administer public examinations in the United Kingdom and to provide information on the results of such examinations.

To whom it may concern

It is an absolute pleasure to recommend Ms. Mirfath Faiz (A057245) or to say anything about her.

During my career with the Maldives Police service, I thoroughly enjoyed my time working with Mirfath and came to know her as a truly valuable asset to any team. She is honest, dependable and incredibly hard working. Beyond that she is an impressive problem solver who is always able to address complex issues with strategy and confidence. Mirfath is inspired by challenges and never intimidated by them. Along with her undeniable talent, Mirfath has always been an absolute joy to work with. She is a true team player and always manages to foster positive discussions and bring the best out of other employees.

Without doubt, I confidently recommend Mirfath to join any team. As a dedicated and knowledgeable employee and an all-around great person, I know that she will be a great addition to any organization. Please feel free to contact me, should you like to discuss Mirfath's qualifications and experience further.

As per the information from Mirfath Faiz, below mentioned are the positions she had filled while working at Maldives Police Service from January 2007 to June 2010

- 2007 – Public Affairs Department Deputy Head
- 2007 – Police Academy Second in Command
- 2008 – 2010 FCPD In-Charge
- 2010 – Head of HR

Warm regards,
Ahmed Faseeh
