Dr Salma Rasheed Burton

Dr Salma Rasheed holds a PhD in Evaluation from London South Bank University and Masters and Bachelors degrees from Leeds University, UK, and the American University of Beirut. Dr Salma is a senior policy and planning professional with 40 years of international experience in Africa, Asia and Europe, working in the health sector at multilateral, national and local government levels.

She began her Maldives government service in 1983 at the Ministry of Health. She was instrumental in developing the first National Health Plan of Maldives and the implementation of the national childhood immunization programme through mobile health teams, as well as the establishment of regulatory systems and the first pharmacist training programmes for improving quality of medicines. She later served at the Ministry of Women's Affairs directing women's development programmes including domestication of The Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination against Women (CEDAW). She was a member of both the Citizen's Majlis and the Special Majlis in 1993/95. Outside, the country, she has represented the Republic of Maldives at numerous SAARC and United Nations fora.

Dr Salma's 17-year career with the United Nations included long-term missions with UNFPA and WHO as Deputy Representative, Regional Advisor, Team Leader and Programme Manager in Nigeria, India, Myanmar, Indonesia and Switzerland. As the Regional Advisor Dr Salma undertook a number of missions to Maldives to advise the Ministry of Health on the development of health systems.
